

Providing input to the Edmonton Police Commission

Citizens are invited to attend the Edmonton Police Commission's public meetings. Time is allocated at each meeting for all members of the public who wish to speak to provide input about policing issues in their community. There is no need to pre-register to speak to the Commission.

Presentation Guidelines for Speakers:

- Speakers will be allotted five minutes each.
- Following each presentation, Commission members may ask questions.
- The presentation will be received for information.
- The Commission may decide to respond to the speaker in a written reply following the meeting, if contact information is provided.
