STATISTICAL SUMMARY

February Update

1. RECEIVED FILES

The following figure shows the number and type of files received during the month of February. Blue colours represent informal files and red colours represent formal investigations. Lighter shades indicate internally generated files and darker shades indicate externally generated files. As can be seen below, during the month of February, PSB received 65 informal files and 18 formal complaints.

The following figure shows the year-to-date percentage increase or decrease in formal complaints and total files compared to 2012 values. The difference in formal complaints represents an increase of 10 investigations, and the difference in total files received represents an increase of 20 files. The number of formal complaints and total files is similar to that of 2011.

2. CURRENT WORKLOAD

The following figure displays the status of all open PSB files and shows the age of the file for all active files. As of February 28, 2012, PSB had 411 open investigations; 261 of those files are Police Act or statutory investigations. The remaining files are informal concerns received internally or from the public. An investigation is listed as “Suspended” when it is not currently being advanced. Reasons for suspending a file may include executive review of the investigation, disciplinary hearings, criminal investigation or court proceedings. An investigation is listed as “Forwarded” when it is ongoing but not under the control of PSB. Reasons for forwarding a file may include supervisory reviews, obtaining legal opinions, or investigation by outside investigators.

The following figure shows the age and status of all open PSB investigations. Each individual marker (i.e., diamond, circle or triangle) represents one investigation; thus the number of open investigations from a given time period is indicated by the density of the markers.

The following figure shows the stage of investigation for formal complaints by month. The stages of investigation include Clarification (interviewing the complainant to determine the specific details of the complaint), Collection (collection of evidence and witness interviews), Subject Officer Interviews (explanatory reports and/or interview of the subject officer), Report (compiling the final report) and Disposition (executive review of the file). Investigations may also be placed on “Hold” (e.g., for dispute resolution, legal review, hearing, etc.) or may be undetermined (e.g., for complaints that are not proceeding to formal investigation). Complaints in the “Hold” stage or with an undetermined stage are not included in this figure.

COMPLIMENTS

During the month of February, twenty-five (25) letters of appreciation were entered by the Edmonton Police Service. Professional Standards Branch would like to present two (2) of these letters.

1.

Today we had to dispatch EPS to deal with a suicidal client at our agency. Jeff Kaun (badge 2528) came out and was absolutely amazing. His manner in dealing with a client who was in crisis was so calming and so understanding. He even kneeled to talk to her at eye level (she was sitting on a couch). He was so caring and understanding and really helped make a difficult situation even better. I wanted to express my thanks for how compassionate he was. Greatly appreciated!

2.

Dear Sir,

I would like to commend and express my appreciation for one of your Constables, A. Lalonde.

On October 9, 2012 my Mom was involved in a Pedestrian/Vehicle accident. My Mom was the Pedestrian and had to be taken to hospital by ambulance. Constable Lalonde investigated the accident. She was very professional and at the same time showed considerable compassion and patience. I was not handling things well but her professional demeanor made the situation more bearable. She continued to show her kind, compassionate nature when she followed up with my Mom at our home and again when she issued the subpoena to me for Court.

Today was the date we had to appear at Court and once again I was impressed with her kindness. At all times, her calm manner was a comfort and strength to me and my Mom. I appreciate the time Constable Lalonde took to talk to both me and to my Mom. She truly is a credit to the Edmonton Police Service.

Thank you
